It goes without saying that Brilliant have only partnered with the best external parties but Brilliant is not accountable for any service issues or errors on the part of any external party.

Data Retention

Brilliant will retain as much data on you and your tenants as possible in order to offer you and your tenants the best possible service. This data makes it easier for you to benefit from all of our services without the need for data duplication. For details on the group's Privacy Policy please click here. In agreeing to these terms and conditions you are hereby agreeing to accept the group's Privacy Policy.

Permissions

Please note that in order to provide suitable services we will need to determine that you have obtained the appropriate permissions relating to that service.

Contact

We may contact you on a regular basis for an update. This will allow us to ensure that information we retain is as up to date as possible. You may be contacted by us directly in order to offer supporting services or products or to offer support, services and products as requested by you. This can help avoid problems before they arise and is a key part of our service.

Service Standards

Service Standards advertised provide no guarantee. These are standards that we expect to meet on a daily basis but we acknowledge that on exceptional occasions we may not meet expectations. If you have any particular service problem please contact us directly.

Liability

Brilliant accepts no liability for any financial loss or damage as a result of the provision, or lack of provision, of Brilliant products or services.
